On an early expedition the Rev. John Stuart had found Captain Everett gathering his neighbors together to hear the Church service and a sermon. Presently he himself held a service in Everett's home - five miles from Kingston - on the first Friday of every month.

Mr. Jo. Everett £1.3.4.

John Everett, in the Report on the Minutes of the Land Board of Mecklenburg from March 23 to June 24, 1791, which was considered by the Executive Council at Quebec on December 24, 1791, John Everett claimed land as a Captain of Associated Loyalists under the Order in Council of October 28, 1788, and July 21, 1790 (Quebec Land Book for Upper Canada, p. 373). In 1797 he preferred before the Land Claims Board of the Midland District a claim to the East side of Lot 7, Concession 1, Township of Kingston (D. W. Smith Papers, vol. B10, p. 207).

At various times in 1792 and 1793 Dr. Stuart made mention of Capt. Everett in writing to the Secretary of the Society for Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. As a typical instance the following quotation from the letter of February 23, 1792, will serve: "On the first Friday in every Month, he preaches at a Captain Everett's, 5 miles from Kingston, by which means a number of poor people of the neighbouring Township of ~~Emestown~~ have the benefit of it, and it counteracts the views of the Methodists, who were gaining a ~~foothold~~ footing in that retired corner (S. P. G. Journal, Vol. 26, pp. 22-199).
